ROOSEVELT PREACHING MILITARY PREPAREDNESS AND DENOUNCING "MOLLYCODDLES" TO UNITED STATES SOLDIERS AND SAILORS AT SAN FRANCISCO
A panoramic view of the sailors and soldiers in front of the Enlisted Men's Clubhouse at the Panama-Pacific Exposition listening to Colonel Roosevelt speaking. Colonel Roosevelt can be seen in the lower right-hand corner. It was here that the Colonel lambasted the "peace-at-any-price mollycoddles."

D'ANNUNZIO IN HIS BRAND-NEW MILITARY UNIFORM
The Italian poet (at left) wanted to join the navy at first, but finally accepted a reserve lieutenantancy in the army. He plans to write a history of the war against Austria.

THE "MOVIE" PHOTOGRAPHER MUST BE PREPARED TO TAKE PICTURES ANYWHERE
A photoplay company was running off this battle scene in a pool near Plymouth, Pa., when the Evening Ledger photographer happened by. The "movie" man is seen on a raft grinding away at the swimming horses.

ARTIST MODEL BRIDE ON GYPSY HONEYMOON
Mr. and Mrs. William Schmeike at Lake Hopatcong, N. J., on the first stop of their honeymoon journey from coast to coast in a "gypsy" wagon. Mrs. Schmeike was a well-known artist's model.

STAGE CALLS PHILADELPHIA WOMAN
Mrs. Helen Gill, of 318 South 15th street, will make her theatrical debut in "Cousin Lucy." She is the wife of Dr. A. Bruce Gill.

GERMANY'S YOUNG NAVAL HERO
Lieutenant Muscke headed the landing party from the Emden at Coeur Island. They escaped in a sailing vessel, and reached the Arabian coast.
